TWO LOVE BIRDS

You would have to be an expert to detect the fact that Helen Fromer had been crying. True, there was a little redness about her two pale blue eyes. But this you might say had been caused by eyestrain. Her jet black hair was pushed to the right side of her head. And just now she was smiling. It did take a lot of effort to be pleasant in the bargain basement of Shaw's Department Store.

"The colors will not run when you wash them," she was telling an elderly lady. "Use luke warm water and do not rub too vigorously. Best bargain in town. Last week we sold the identical item for $4.40. Half price this week. How many do you want? Three? Shall I charge it?"

When the sale had been made, Helen sat down for just five seconds. Elsie Miller came over to her with some news.

"Mrs. Dulligan wants to see you. She's over at booth number ten. Looks a bit mad to me. Did you do anything wrong?"

Mrs. Mary Dulligan had been with Shaw's Department store so long that not a soul, except old man Show, could tell you when she first started. There had been a rumor she had worked down in Civil War Days, but this was merely a bit of idle gossip. When Helen Fromer arrived at booth ten, Mrs. Dulligan handed her a sales book.

"You made more mistakes yesterday than the entire store put together. The package that was to be delivered to 345 Grand Avenue you sent to 543 Grand Avenue. Just reversed the numbers. Then our sales item for $3.20 you sold for $2.30. Costs us only $2.50 each. And you switched packages three times."

This time Helen really cried. It looked something like a miniature downpour on a hot sultry summer day. Mrs. Dulligan handed Helen a handkerchief.

"Now turn off the water works and listen to some common sense," she advised. "This is a very touching scene I'm sure. Everybody in the store knows you are head over heels in love with Bill Mayer. To be exact, I should say everybody but Bill himself. It is evident the grapevine has also reached your little ears. So you have heard that old man Show has offered Bill a top job. The catch is that his daughter Katherine goes with the offer. Now don't be too hard on the boss. If you had a daughter like Katherine you would give two of these stores to marry her off to a nice fellow. As for Bill, he has a future ahead of him. If he wants to marry for money and position, that is up to him. I have nothing more to say. But do me just one little favor. Make out those sales slips so that I don't have to check over your book. If there is anything I can do to help you, I'll do it. I'm just a softy for young love of my age."

Helen Fromer managed to go through the rest of the day without a mistake in her sales book. That was because her chum, Elsie Miller, double checked everything. At closing time, Elsie made a sensible suggestion.

"Better let me go home with you. You're in a daze. It must be terrible to be in love with a guy who doesn't know it. Maybe we should have a committee to inform him. If he had any sense in that thick skull of his he would know you are the only girl in the world for him."

Helen arrived home safely but not without giving two motorists a taste of heart failure. She had no appetite and went to bed early. Her dream was partly a nightmare. A young man on a white horse came up to her.

"Make out a sales slip for one love. To last forever and ever. Hurry I have no time. Otherwise I must go to South Hampton."

"No sales slip for me," she taunted him in her dream. "Love is not for sale. Yet it can be bought with any one thing in this world. Love.

Love for Love. You don't love Katherine Show. You love me!"

As the young man on horseback started to hand Helen the sales book, she awoke. It was early morning and Saturday. She had an idea

"I'll go to the zoo," she said to herself. "First I'll go get some breakfast in the corner drug-store."

She didn't look at the clock. Quickly she dressed and went downstairs. There was an old car parked at the curb. A tall young man slid away from behind the wheel. Then he stood in front of her. His two hands found her hands and held them tightly. The sun was coming up from the horizon and also the apartment houses. There were only a few people in the street at 6:30 in the morning.

Bill's eyes gazed directly at Helen. She was beginning to breathe heavily as the excitement grasped her. He came closer and so did she. She sabbed slightly and then his two arms went around her. This was no dream she told herself as his lips searched far and found hers. She knew that without him life would have no meaning.

Several people passed by without any comment. A middle-aged man stopped and eyed the lovers carefully.

"Why don't you marry the girl," he suggested.

"Thanks for the idea, mister," was the unexpected reply. "City Hall opens at nine."

They had a quick breakfast at the corner drugstore. When they left the soda jerk made his observation.

"Nuts, I tell you. Plain nuts the two of them. She starts to butter her toast with a spoon. He spills his cream over the floor, and then tries to stir his coffee with his finger. What's the matter with people today?"

"Can't you recognize love when you see it, you big moron?" said Tillie who was washing dishes. And then to herself she added. "I wish that moron would find out how I love him. If he doesn't, maybe I should tell him."

A garage attendant and a porter were the two fortunate witnesses for the wedding. Then they went into the car. Helen looked at Bill.

"As your wife may I ask what happened? What did old man Show try to do to you?"

"Whenever anybody is considered for advancement, they get an invitation to his place in South Hampton. I went there two weeks ago. He put it on thick. Told me he wanted someone to carry on the Shaw name. I would have to change my name to his. Then Katherine made a big play for me. Told me all the things she expected in a husband. They had me out on their boat. Gave me a taste of big money. I knew there was a certain girl for me. Right in the store. So I got busy. Lined up a job in Chicago. Of course I would be fired. What did they think I was? A hunk of merchandise for sale?"

They stopped back at Helen's place and she packed her bags. Then she went to the phone.

"At least I should tell Mrs. Dunnigan," she informed her husband.

"And she'll tell the whole store," added Bill.

Soon they were headed towards the Elmore Avenue Bridge on their way to Chicago. The siren of a police car and two motorcycle officers stopped them.

"Anything wrong?" asked Bill

"Identify yourself," replied the officer.

"Just married," said Helen. "Show them our license."

They were escorted back to the entrance to the bridge. A lot of people gathered around them. The police officer talked to some bigwig. Then the man came over.

"Congratulations you two lucky lovebirds. Your car was the ten millionth to use the Elmore Avenue Bridge. We are staging a big publicity stunt. You get a free honeymoon, a new house all furnished, a new car, and a new wardrobe for both of you. Let our Chamber of Commerce give you the biggest marriage reception in the history of our city."

Helen cried as flashbulbs exploded. But these were tears of joy. She managed to say one sentence to her husband.

"I always wanted a big wedding."

Back in the private office of Samuel Show, Mrs. Dunnigan was facing a tired man.

"Bill has possibilities and will make good. You give him that job. As for Katherine, I'll take care of her myself and teach her how to really get a man."

She stopped for breath and smiled gently. She had something more to say.

"You better tell Katherine we have been secretly married for two months. I'm finished working in the store. That house in South Hampton needs me. Doesn't it, my lovebird?"

She Once Had HEAVY LEGS! Now Has Slender Hips, Thighs, Knees, Calves and Ankles!

"I have been taking your course...and think it's the most wonderful thing in the line of reducing legs!"

—writes Mrs. J. C. O., Lewiston, Idaho.

The most encouraging news for women with fat, flabby legs has just been revealed by Henry Milchatin, Ph.D. If your heavy legs are due to normal causes and you haven't any disease or pathological condition, you should try to attain the slender, alluring legs you've always wanted. This well-known physiotherapist, who was President of the Metropolitan School of Physiotherapy, has an enviable record of helping lovely stage and screen actresses as well as women like yourself to mold beautiful legs. Over a period of over 30 years, he has used an amazingly natural method which is unsurpassed by anything we have ever seen.

ORDINARY METHODS FOUND TO HELP LITTLE IN SLENDERIZING HEAVY LEGS

Many women engaged in improper strenuous exercises and calisthenics used up a lot of time and energy but it did next to nothing for concentrating on trimming down heavy legs.

Other women actually tried reducing diets alone to slenderize heavy legs. Since a weight reducing diet cannot be made to take weight off any single part of your body, you may lose weight everywhere but in your legs. And if your legs lost a little weight, no drug or diet can normalize and firm the entire contour, which would remain flabby. This method does concentrate on slenderizing each section of your legs from the hips to the ankles.

IN MANY CASES DOCTORS ADVISE USE OF THIS TECHNIQUE

This progressive scientific method for slenderizing heavy legs is based on the knowledge and experience of the medical profession, physiotherapists and famous body contour experts throughout the world.

Your heavy flabby legs are usually caused by fatty layers and too much muscle tissue which stretch the muscles of your legs and cause them to bulge.

To help correct this condition properly, you should try this scientific system planned to concentrate on each section of your legs: help break down fatty layers and extra bulging muscle tissue and help strengthen and normalize the muscle tone which makes the contour of the legs more normal, firm, slender and attractive. When each section of the leg has its proper normal shape, the bulging hips possess streamlined, youthful lines which men admire, the flabby thighs are trimmed down into an attractive contour, ugly knees are daintily shaped without pulled-up pouches of flesh, the heavy calves take on more slenderized, alluring curves and even the heavy ankles show sleek, graceful lines.

WHICH LEG PROBLEMS ARE YOURS?

BEFORE

Mrs. J. C. O. had heavy, flabby legs, was self-conscious because her legs spoiled her entire figure.

AFTER

Firmer, slender legs are acquired by following this method, you will wear all clothes and bathing suits with confidence.

"ALL AROUND GLAMOUR LEGS" HELP WOMEN IN EVERYTHING THEY DO

Most figure experts agree that heavy legs spoil an otherwise shapely figure while nicely slenderized limbs add an appearance of over-all beauty to even the heavy and average figure. Because the legs are the one part of the body which always shows, glamorous legs help you look better in any clothes you wear — dresses, skirts, sports and play clothes, bathing suits, etc. They make you a more desirable dance partner and help you do the latest steps more gracefully. Well-formed, firm legs help you in all sports; then enable you to swim, skate, bowl, play tennis, etc., with more ease and better form. They help you walk and stand with ease, with the posture which always was admiration. Removing excess flabbiness and strengthening your legs will give you more energy for work or play, help lessen fatigue, especially when your job or housework keeps you on your feet.

TESTED AND PROVEN METHOD REQUIRES ONLY 15 PLEASANT MINUTES A DAY!

This amazing method has been used by beautiful stage and screen stars, professional models and women in every walk of life. Thousands have gladly paid high fees for personal instruction here in New York City. Now this famous expert makes it possible for any woman to try his method, requiring only 15 minutes a day, right in the comfort and privacy of her own home at a tiny fraction of this cost.

You get the complete, easy, step-by-step illustrated SCIENTIFIC LEG SLENDERIZING TECHNIQUE with simple instructions for fat, flabby hips, thighs, knees, calves, ankles, gaining firmer, stronger legs, improving skin tone and circulation in legs; normal causes of heavy legs; plus measurement chart for each section of leg according to height and weight; also, how leg slenderizing may improve general health. Mail coupon TODAY!

WRITTEN ABOUT IN LEADING HEALTH MAGAZINE

HEALTH CULTURE asked this authority on legs to write a series of articles on the fundamentals of this method. This magazine rightly believed that their readers should know about this wonderful technique. Many other leading magazines and newspapers have written about the priceless advantages of correct leg contour and strength.

SEE HOW THIS TECHNIQUE HELPED JUST A FEW OF THE MANY OTHERS!

"Never before have I been able to wear shorts and play suits. Now I get many compliments, thanks to your course. This is what your course did for my stout legs!" —Miss S. McN., Cloplint, Ky.

"I thought your course was just wonderful! It is really the best for acquiring more slender, graceful legs. I made a great deal of progress with your course, and would recommend it to anyone who wants lovelier legs." —Miss A. C., Drumright, Okla.
